Glancy Binkow & Goldberg LLP has been responsible for obtaining favorable appellate opinions which have broken new ground in the class action or securities fields, or which have promoted shareholder rights in prosecuting these actions. Glancy Binkow & Goldberg successfully argued the appeals in a number of cases.

In Smith v. L'Oreal, 39 Cal.4th 77 (2006), firm partner Kevin Ruf established ground-breaking law when the California Supreme Court agreed with the firm's position that waiting penalties under the California Labor Code are available to any employee after termination of employment, regardless of the reason for that termination.

Other notable firm cases are: Silber v. Mabon I, 957 F.2d 697 (9th Cir. 1992) and Silber v. Mabon II, 18 F.3d 1449 (9th Cir. 1994), which are the leading decisions in the Ninth Circuit regarding the rights of opt-outs in class action settlements. In Rothman v. Gregor, 220 F.3d 81 (2d Cir. 2000), Glancy Binkow & Goldberg won a seminal victory for investors before the Second Circuit Court of Appeals, which adopted a more favorable pleading standard for investors in reversing the District Court's dismissal of the investors' complaint. After this successful appeal, Glancy Binkow & Goldberg then recovered millions of dollars for defrauded investors of the GT Interactive Corporation. The firm also argued Falkowski v. Imation Corp., 309 F.3d 1123 (9th Cir. 2002), as amended, 320 F.3d 905 (9th Cir. 2003) and favorably obtained the substantial reversal of a lower court's dismissal of a cutting edge, complex class action initiated to seek redress for a group of employees whose stock options were improperly forfeited by a giant corporation in the course of its sale of the subsidiary at which they worked. The revived action is currently proceeding in the California state court system.

The firm is also involved in the representation of individual investors in court proceedings throughout the United States and in arbitrations before the American Arbitration Association, National Association of Securities Dealers, New York Stock Exchange, and Pacific Stock Exchange. Mr. Glancy has successfully represented litigants in proceedings against such major securities firms and insurance companies as A.G. Edwards & Sons, Bear Stearns, Merrill Lynch & Co., Morgan Stanley, PaineWebber, Prudential, and Shearson Lehman Brothers.

One of firm's unique skills is the use of "group litigation" - the representation of groups of individuals who have been collectively victimized or defrauded by large institutions. This type of litigation brought on behalf of individuals who have been similarly damaged often provides an efficient and effective economic remedy that frequently has advantages over the class action or individual action devices. The firm has successfully achieved results for groups of individuals in cases against major corporations such as Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, and Occidental Petroleum Corporation.

EX KANO S. SAMS II earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of California Los Angeles in 1993. Mr. Sams earned his Juris Doctor degree from the University of California Los Angeles School of Law in 1996, where he served as a member of the UCLA Law Review. Since graduating from UCLA Law School, he has dedicated his entire career exclusively to representing plaintiffs in large-scale class action and complex civil litigation matters.

After law school, Mr. Sams practiced class action civil rights litigation on behalf of plaintiffs in cases involving employment discrimination, housing discrimination, and sexual harassment. Subsequently, Mr. Sams was a partner at Coughlin Stoia Geller Rudman & Robbins LLP (currently Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP), where his practice focused on securities and consumer class actions. While at Coughlin Stoia and its predecessor, he worked in the firm's San Diego, San Francisco, and Los Angeles offices.

Mr. Sams has served as lead counsel in dozens of securities class actions throughout the country. In one securities fraud class action that he actively litigated, Mr. Sams assisted in a successful appeal before a Fifth Circuit panel that included former United States Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor sitting by designation, in which the court vacated the lower court's denial of class certification, reversed the lower court's grant of summary judgment, and issued an important decision on the issue of loss causation in securities litigation: Alaska Electrical Pension Fund v. Flowserve Corp., 572 F.3d 221 (5th Cir. 2009). The case eventually settled for $55 million. Mr. Sams also worked on a securities fraud class action where lead counsel obtained a settlement that represented approximately 78% of the likely recoverable damages in the case. He has also led large litigation teams in securities class actions and has prepared massive summary judgment oppositions, drafted and argued numerous motions, worked closely with expert witnesses, and has taken and defended dozens of depositions.

Mr. Sams has also successfully represented consumers in class action litigation. Mr. Sams worked on nationwide litigation and a trial against major tobacco companies and in statewide tobacco litigation that resulted in a $12.5 billion recovery for California cities and counties in a landmark settlement. He also was a principal attorney in a consumer class action against one of the largest banks in the country that resulted in a recovery of over 80% of the compensatory damages and a change in the company's business practices. Additionally, Mr. Sams has also handled several complex environmental matters. Mr. Sams participated in settlement negotiations on behalf of national environmental organizations along with the United States Department of Justice and the Ohio Attorney General's Office that resulted in a consent decree requiring the company to conduct wide-ranging remediation measures to ameliorate the effects of air and water pollution and to pay civil penalties. He also participated in discovery and trial preparation in an unfair business practices action that led to a favorable settlement near the eve of trial providing for monetary relief for a public water provider against the threat of groundwater contamination.

Mr. Sams is admitted to practice law in the State of California. He is also admitted to practice before the United States Courts of Appeals for the Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, and Eleventh Circuits and before the district courts for the Northern, Southern, Eastern, and Central Districts of California, the Northern District of Illinois, the Eastern District of Michigan, and the District of Colorado. Mr. Sams is a member of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, the John M. Langston Bar Association, and the Consumer Attorneys of California.
